

Zone 2 Job Description

Head Coach: Profile

The Head Coach will support & help drive a culture of excellence and long-term development within the entire club environment.

Below are the core elements of a successful Academy Head Coach candidate's profile: -
Enthusiastic for the opportunity that this role presents

- intrinsically motivate to produce their personal best; and in doing so, reflects on, analyzes and adapts their own performance to become better.
- Exceptional interpersonal skills, marked by; honesty, empathy, and service
- Proficient in the use of Performance Analysis Tools and present the findings in a team environment to drive the development of players and team.
- A valid driver's license
- Clear criminal background check
- Eligible to live and work in the United States of America

Head Coach: Responsibilities

This person will be responsible for delivering team sessions. Additionally, the Head Coach is expected to work closely with the rest of the staff to develop, implement and update each players IDP. Following along with that role the Head Coach will work closely with the rest of coaching staff to insure our best possible opportunity to develop across the age groups.

Detailed responsibilities are as follows:

Head Coach: Additional Considerations

- Additionally, the successful Head Coach candidate will possess some of the desirable qualities, abilities, or titles listed below:
- Degree(s) in relevant field (i.e. education, psychology, management, information technology, marketing, graphic design.)
- Brings a "+1" (Sports Science, ADT, AT, Video Analysis Skills, Bi-lingual, Medical Professional, GK specialist, Tech Savvy)
- Excellent Google Drive, PDF, Excel, Keynote/Powerpoint skills

Head Coach: Compensation

- Compensation package is based on applicants experiences, qualifications, and demonstrated abilities